REASON FOR REQUEST

A permit expires within 180 days from date of issuance. A permit remains valid for 180 days after date of issuance provided work has commenced and inspections have been conducted within 180 days. A permit shall be invalid if the authorized work did not commence within 180 days from date of issuance; OR the authorized work has been suspended or abandoned for 180 days from the time work was commenced or from the date of last inspected. The Building Official is authorized to extend a permit, provided a written extension request is submitted and justifiable cause is shown. Expired and invalid permits may be extended upon the discretion of the Building official and a renewal fee at half the cost of the permit may be imposed.
